Webinar Information

Topic: 2019 IATA Regulatory Updates

Date/Time: Tuesday, December 18, 2018, 1:00PM-4:00PM EST

Instructor: John Frantz

Recommended Training Material(s): IATA 60th Edition

Set up: You will need access to a computer with a stable internet connection to view the visual presentation. For the audio, you can either connect using a microphone via VOIP or using a telephone and calling into the conference number provided in the WebEx invitation. If you have a web camera and would like to use it, please do so but note that it's optional.

How it works: You will receive an invitation from WebEx containing all of the details for the training. On the day of the training, log in a few minutes early to test your connection, visual, and audio. Click on the link in the WebEx invitation to access the presentation. Once you log in you can choose how to connect to the audio. The conference number is in the WebEx invitation should you choose to connect via telephone.
